

Chellee Siewert, President of Capture Marketing, LLC

Chellee Siewert is President of Capture Marketing, LCC, a public relations and events agency experienced in developing creative solutions on behalf of corporations, foundations, professional athletes and other celebrities. Siewert is a 2014 Milwaukee Business Journal 40 under 40 recipient and has extensive experience with events including partnering with the JJ Watt Foundation for the JJ Watt Charity Classic, included sponsorships, public relations and event logistics for this event and many others.

Capture has secured national media exposure for numerous clients including ESPN, CBS, CNN, Yahoo, Fox Sports, People Magazine and Entertainment Tonight among many local outlets throughout the country. Capture believes that Doing Good is Good Business (DGIGB) and partners with clients to advance their cause marketing initiatives

"Seeing a child's cancer diagnosis affect on a family and community, while being inspired by Annie's mission to raise awareness and action, it is an honor to be a part of the Gold In September (G9) movement."

HELPING EVERY CHILD, EVERYWHERE