01. Full-Color Logo

Below are the primary logos used. For Example the logos can be adapted to fit with different media and executions, such as brochures, envelopes, t-shirts, pins, social, etc. The horizontal logo is an alternative to the letterhead adaptation, however, use the circular adaptation whenever possible.

- Whenever possible, full-color versions of the logos should be used.
- G9 Logos must be used in their complete, unmodified form and cannot be placed on top of, behind, integrated with, or directly touching any other logos or graphics.
- G9 logo colors and shapes cannot be manipulated or changed in any way, and should never be distorted, filtered, ghosted, tilted, or otherwise modified in any way that detracts from the original appearance. Resizing should always be proportional.
- G9 full-color logos may only be placed on the G9 primary color palette (see page 3) and may not be placed on any other color background.
- G9 logo cannot be reproduced without explicit permission from G9. All logo reproductions must be approved by G9. To reach out for approval, email info@goldinseptember.org.
- When writing out or referring to the brand by name, always use the official name Gold In September (G9). First letter in words must be capitalized.
